

WILDERNESS RIVER ADVENTURES

Optional Related Facilities and Transportation

PAGE, ARIZONA is a small but modern community that overlooks Glen Canyon Dam, captivating Lake Powell and the thrilling Colorado River. The U.S. Bureau of Reclamation founded Page in 1957 for the families of men who constructed huge Glen Canyon Dam. It was later incorporated as an independent Arizona city in 1975. It provides all necessary services and facilities for approximately 7,000 residents and thousands of visitors and sportsmen. Page Municipal Airport features a paved, lighted runway of 5,000 ft. For everyone that comes to Page, the welcome mat is always out.
